Skyline CAP Board of Directors Elects New Officers

MADISON, VA – The Board of Directors for Skyline Community Action Partnership, Inc., selected new officers at its regular monthly meeting held November 28, 2018.

Elected President of the Board is Lorraine Goldberg, who was invited to join the Board in May 2018 and has served as a member of the Skyline CAP Head Start Policy Council. Her daughter, Evelyn, is a graduate of Skyline's Head Start program. Goldberg most recently worked as an Assistant Professor of English at Northern Virginia Community College in Manassas, Va., and is currently a doctoral candidate at George Mason University studying the methods by which traditional academic institutions can better serve nontraditional students.

"Skyline's work is crucial to the well-being of our communities," noted Goldberg. "I am honored and excited to work with my fellow board members to grow our programs and provide increased access to important resources."

Goldberg succeeds Jonathon Weakley who served as President since June 2017.

Jerry Butler and Delano "Dink" Kreis were elected to serve as co-Vice President. Butler previously served the Board as President and Treasurer and has been a member since July 2015. Kreis previously served as Vice President and has been a member of the Board since February 2012.

Kerri Banks was elected to her second term as Secretary; Banks has been a member of the Board since October 2017 and currently serves as Chairperson on the Head Start Policy Council for Skyline CAP.

Frank Berry was elected to serve as Treasurer. Berry is a Certified Public Accountant and a partner with Hantzmon Wiebel LLP in Charlottesville, Va.. He has been a member of the Board since September 2018.

Skyline CAP, Inc. is governed by a tripartite board, with at least one third of its directors representing the low-income families and individuals we serve, one third representing elected officials or their representatives, and the balance representing the private sector and other groups and interests in the communities we serve.
